

HJR 53 -- General Assembly Member Term Limits

Sponsor: Neth

Currently, a person cannot serve more than eight years in any one house of the General Assembly. Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment allows a person to serve any portion of the 16-year limit between the House of Representatives and the Senate.